

World Council

2025 IMPACT REPORT

GLOBAL IMPACT, SYSTEM-LEVEL CHANGE

In 2025, World Council of Credit Unions helped reshape the global environment in which credit unions operate, advancing proportional regulation, expanding access to finance, and strengthening cooperative systems across six continents.

Through international advocacy, global convening and systems leadership, WOCCU delivered measurable impact and positioned credit unions to lead in an evolving global financial landscape.

These efforts mattered, not just for credit unions, but for the millions of people and communities that rely on them for fair, accessible financial services.

KEY IMPACT METRICS:

- Influenced engagement with major global regulatory bodies, including FATF, the Basel Committee and the European Parliament

- Convened 2,034 in-person participants at the World Credit Union Conference in Stockholm

- Reached 3,000+ online participants through global digital platforms

- Advanced financial inclusion initiatives in Ukraine, Guatemala and Kenya

- Mobilized 186 credit unions for a global climate finance study

- Strengthened global peer learning across 6 countries

THE GLOBAL VOICE OF THE CREDIT UNION SYSTEM

World Council of Credit Unions (WOCCU) is the global trade association representing national and regional credit union associations around the world. WOCCU advocates for regulatory environments that enable credit unions and financial cooperatives to thrive, while convening global leaders and strengthening financial systems through policy engagement, research and collaboration.

KEY PROOF POINTS:

Represents credit unions before international standard-setting and regulatory bodies

Membership includes national and regional credit union associations across six continents

Serves as a global convener for the credit union movement

Provides advocacy, member services, research, and global engagement

Works in close collaboration with Worldwide Foundation for Credit Unions to deliver a unified enterprise approach

SHAPING GLOBAL FINANCIAL POLICY FOR CREDIT UNIONS

In 2025, WOCCU advanced a proactive global advocacy agenda focused on proportional regulation, risk-based standards, and regulatory recognition of the cooperative financial model. Through sustained engagement with international policymakers, WOCCU helped influence global frameworks that directly affect how credit unions operate and serve their members worldwide.

KEY IMPACT OUTCOMES:

Influenced international AML standards to support proportional, risk-based regulation for credit unions

Achieved stronger FATF language encouraging national regulators to adopt riskbased supervision approaches

Established a proactive, responsive global advocacy agenda aligned with member priorities

Published global policy whitepapers on:

- Ethical use of Artificial Intelligence in Credit Unions
- Use of Alternative Identification to expand financial access

Engaged with major international policy bodies, including:

European Network
of Credit
Unions

STRENGTHENING THE GLOBAL CREDIT UNION SYSTEM

In 2025, WOCCU delivered high-impact global peer exchanges and convenings that enabled credit union leaders to share best practices, strengthen governance models and build scalable systems across regions.

These engagements fostered practical learning, cross-border collaboration, and long-term institutional relationships within the global credit union movement, directly informing governance reforms, service delivery models, and innovation strategies across participating credit union systems.

KEY IMPACT OUTCOMES:

- High-impact peer exchanges in Brazil with Sicredi, Cresol and Sicoob focused on integrated service delivery, governance discipline, and scalable innovation
- Regional forum in Panama City strengthening collaboration among credit union leaders across the Americas
- Global forums and conferences that expanded knowledge exchange and systems learning in:
 - 🇵🇭 Manila, Philippines (ACCU Forum)
 - 🇨🇦 Halifax, Canada (CCUA Conference)
 - 🇬🇦 Accra, Ghana (SACCA Congress)
 - 🇧🇪 Brussels, Belgium (ENCU Meetings)
- Strengthened cross-regional collaboration and knowledge sharing across cooperative systems
- Expanded global learning networks connecting leaders, practitioners, and policymakers

ADVANCING FINANCIAL INCLUSION THROUGH COOPERATIVE FINANCE

In partnership with WFCU through the Rally the Movement campaign, launched in response to USAID funding cuts, WOCCU delivered measurable financial inclusion outcomes in communities facing economic and systemic challenges. By strengthening local credit unions and cooperative systems, WOCCU helped expand access to financial services, credit and economic opportunity across fragile and emerging markets.

KEY IMPACT OUTCOMES:

Ukraine

- 430+ loans disbursed totaling $1.2M
- 6 national policy dialogues initiated
- 10 credit unions equipped with new operational tools
- National credit guarantee pilot launched

Guatemala

- 6,300+ new savings accounts opened
- 1,400+ members reached (67% women)
- 60+ staff trained
- Rural savings and microcredit pilots launched

Kenya

- 42 SME loans totaling $2M
- 62 staff trained
- 3 SACCOs strengthened

ADVANCING WOCCU 2.0

As the global financial landscape continues to evolve, WOCCU is sharpening its focus around a more responsive, member-centered and impact-driven future. This next phase of growth is grounded in three strategic priorities.

Together, we are strengthening WOCCU's role as a global thought leader and strategic partner to the cooperative financial movement, and translating that strategy into focused action for 2026.

STRATEGIC PRIORITIES:

Amplify Advocacy

Elevating member voices and strengthening influence in global policy and regulatory conversations.

Deliver Premier Member Services

Expanding education, connection and shared learning to create more continuous engagement across the movement.

Demonstrate Impact and the Cooperative Difference

Producing stronger evidence, insights and storytelling that show the value credit unions bring to members and communities.

LOOKING AHEAD: DELIVERING IMPACT IN 2026

In 2026, WOCCU will build on the momentum of 2025 and expand its global impact through deeper regulatory engagement, scaled partnerships and practical innovation for credit union systems worldwide.

Expanding Global Regulatory Engagement

- Lead engagement with FATF, Basel and regional policymakers on proportional AML
- Coordinate unified member input on emerging digital finance regulation
- Deliver advocacy programming and publish two global policy briefs

Scaling Global Convening & Partnerships

- Convene 2,500+ leaders and 100+ partners at WCUC Sydney
- Launch cross-sector collaborations in climate finance, digital identity and AI governance
- Strengthen alignment with regional associations and WFCU

Translating Global Innovation into Member Tools

- Elevate case studies from 60+ countries into actionable member resources
- Launch a global innovation track at WCUC Sydney
- Expand peer exchanges and publish comparative research on emerging models

World Council

Contact us

@woccu

@woccu

@world-council-of-credit-unions

<https://www.woccu.org/>

mail@woccu.org