The Disclosures Rock the Credit Union Difference

The Disclosures

The Disclosures' first album proves that credit unions have a lot to sing about.

Entitled, "(Hey, We're) the Disclosures," the all-acoustic album features original songs that in some way revolve around credit unions.

Dubbing their musical genre "thrift-rock," the duo of Wisconsin Credit Union League Web Producer/Member Development Strategist Chad Helminak and National Credit Union Foundation Director of Communications Christopher Morris have found a way to
